Merry Christmas, Grace!

We’re honored to host you for this exciting opportunity to celebrate the Christ of Christmas together. The Good News of Jesus is what we’re all about, and Christmas reminds us that God is truly with us and for us (Rom. 8:31).

We should never lose the wonder and awe at the miracle of the incarnation: God entering our messy humanity by taking on the form of a servant, embodying himself with flesh, and conquering sin and death through his perfect life, death and resurrection for us.

There is only one appropriate response to this kind of love: giving Jesus the ultimate worth, value, and priority in our daily lives. Another word for this is "worship." And that’s why we’re gathering together here - to worship God and live our lives for Him.
